

Rebecca M. Teasdale: Short Bio

Rebecca M. Teasdale is principal of Rebecca Teasdale & Associates and senior evaluation and research associate with Garibay Group. She has held leadership positions in urban and suburban public libraries and has evaluated projects in libraries, museums, afterschool programs, universities, and professional development initiatives. Rebecca holds a BA in biology and an MA in library science. In May 2019, she will complete her PhD in educational psychology with specialization in evaluation methodology.

Rebecca M. Teasdale: Long Bio

Rebecca M. Teasdale is principal of Rebecca Teasdale & Associates and senior evaluation and research associate with Garibay Group.

As a librarian, Rebecca has held leadership positions in urban and suburban public libraries. She now helps libraries build their capacity to evaluate their offerings and make evidence-based decisions regarding programs, services, collections, and staffing. She has evaluated projects with libraries, museums, afterschool programs, universities, and professional development initiatives funded by the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, Institute of Museum and Library Services, and Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Rebecca has served on the Public Library Association's Project Outcome Task Force, Public Library Data Service Statistical Report Advisory Committee, and Staffing Patterns and Workload Measures Committee; the American Library Association's Committee on Research and Statistics; the Illinois Library Association's Executive Board and Conference Program Committee, and the Oregon Library Association's Intellectual Freedom Committee.

She holds a BA in biology and an MA in library and information science. In May 2019 she will complete her PhD in educational psychology with specialization in evaluation methodology. Rebecca is an active member of the American Evaluation Association, Visitor Studies Association, American Library Association, and Public Library Association.